ARTICLES V
MEETINGS

A. Quorum
A quorum defines the minimum number of members that must be present in order to vote and make decisions for the group. The quorum for this organization is: 35% of the Active members plus ONE more Active Member (50%+1 of the Active Members).

B. Types of meetings (OPTIONAL)
Things to consider:
- Are there different types of meetings (general meetings, board meetings, etc.)?
- How often are meetings held (e.g., weekly, monthly, etc.)?
- Who is required to attend each type of meeting? What happens if a meeting is missed?
- Are there special meetings? What are the circumstances under which special meetings may be called? Who can call the meetings?

C. Method of conducting meetings (OPTIONAL)
Things to consider:
- What rules shall govern the conduct of business for the organization (General Consensus, Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised, etc.)?

D. Meeting minutes and records
The officer in charge of all meeting minutes and keeping all related records of meetings (including special and emergency meetings) shall be the: secretary (other officers will take responsibility if secretary is unavailable)
Meeting Minutes and other records are vital for an organization’s success. Election results, impeachment of an officer, approval of a budget or expense, and passing of an amendment are just a few of the important items that meeting minutes are used to validate/verify. Previous minutes will be read or distributed at the beginning of next meeting. Additions and corrections are to be made at this time and a final approval of the minutes must be made.

ARTICLE VI
ELECTIONS

A. Times and period when elections occur
Yearly elections will be held every Spring quarter no later than the last week of May. New officers will shadow current officers and will be transitioned through Spring quarter. Newly elected officers will take their positions on the first day of summer.

B. Nominations
Only active members are eligible for nomination. Any active member can nominate another active member. Any active member can also self-nominate themselves, but must be seconded by another active member.

C. Notification and posting of elections
Active members will be notified about elections through email, social media, and through announcements at meetings.

D. Election procedures
The quorum necessary for elections to take place is 50% of the active members plus one more active member. Electronic voting may be allowed and may count toward the quorum requirement. Only active members are able to run for elections and only active members are allowed to vote. A majority of votes will secure an officer position. The newly elected officers will be transitioned throughout the remainder of the Spring quarter, and will officially take their positions on the first day of summer. The President, Vice President, and Treasurer (also known as the Executive Board) positions must be elected via the process outlined above. All other positions may have a process that involves applications and interviews. It is best practice, that the selection of all other officers for the following year be selected by the following year’s Executive Board since they will be the ones leading all other officers. This means that Executive Board elections should be done with enough time as to allow the newly elected Executive Board to have enough to time to select the rest of their board.

ARTICLE VII
FINANCIAL RECORDS
The University shall have the right to audit the financial records of this organization. If the organization will receive funding from Associated Student at UCR (ASUCR) or the Graduate Student Association (GSA), the organization must comply with all funding policies and procedures issued by the funding authority.

A. Dues/membership fees
The membership dues for this organization will be $0

B. Budget expenditures (OPTIONAL)
State what the process for budget expenditures will be
- Things to consider:
  - Is a vote of the members required for all expenditures?
  - Who are the officers/members that are responsible for authorizing all expenditures and reimbursements?
  - Officers should never have complete control of financial matters and the general membership.
  - What is the procedure for disbursement of all remaining funds upon dissolution of the organization?
ARTICLE VIII
ADVISORS

A. Selection of advisors (OPTIONAL)
Things to consider:
- How is an advisor selected (e.g., by appointment, election)?
- What are the responsibilities of the advisor? What are the groups’ expectations for the involvement of the advisor?

ARTICLE IX
AMENDMENTS

A. Proposing amendments
All Active members can propose amendments at general meetings. Amendments must be proposed to the board and presented to the active members, and will be voted on at the following general meeting.

B. Provisions
The Quorum necessary for amendments to the constitution to be voted on shall be no less than 50% +1 of the active members. Amendments to the constitution shall be approved by a 2/3 vote in favor of the amendment. All amendments shall be in agreement with University regulations and policies and are not approved until reviewed by a Student Life official. An updated Constitution must be filed with the Student Life office through the online organization system within one week of adoption. Groups will notify their Organization Advisor in Student Life once the document has been uploaded in the system so that it might be reviewed.
